Unofficial summary written for a personal learning project (a RAG knowledge base). Not affiliated with or endorsed by Tesco. Paraphrased from public information retrieved on 13 October 2026; details may have changed, so always check the official policy booklet.

Cancelling your car insurance policy

Source: https://www.tescoinsurance.com/car-insurance/ (policy documents section)

Where the rules are written down

- Your cancellation rights and any refund are set out in section 9.11 of the policy booklet, "How to Cancel Your Policy".
- Any fees and charges are listed in section 9.9 of the policy booklet.
- Use the booklet version that matches your policy start or renewal date.

Cooling-off period

Under UK rules for general insurance, you normally have 14 days after buying, or after receiving your policy documents if later, to cancel. The exact refund and any charges for cancelling in this period are set out in the policy booklet.

Before you cancel

- Make sure your car is insured elsewhere from the day this policy ends. Driving without insurance is illegal in the UK.
- If you have made a claim during the policy year, the refund you receive may be reduced or there may be none; check the booklet.
- If you pay monthly, any money still owed under the payment plan may need to be settled.
- Optional extras such as breakdown or key cover may have their own cancellation terms.

How to ask

Contact Customer Service (Monday to Friday 8am to 8pm, Saturday and Sunday 9am to 2pm) with your policy number. See the contact page for details.