Unofficial summary written for a personal learning project (a RAG knowledge base). Not affiliated with or endorsed by Tesco. Paraphrased from public information retrieved on 13 October 2026; details may have changed, so always check the official policy booklet.

Making a complaint

Source: https://tescoinsurance.com/help/complaints/

How to complain

- You can raise a complaint with Tesco Insurance Customer Relations. Complaints about claims go to Tesco Underwriting.
- Complaints about optional extras go to the partner that provides them: RAC for breakdown, Keycare for key cover, and Arc Legal Assistance for motor legal protection.
- Include any claim or policy reference number you have.
- Postal addresses are listed on the official complaints page.

What to expect and when

- Within 4 business days: if your complaint is resolved this quickly, you are told by text, email or letter.
- After 5 business days: if it is not resolved, you receive an acknowledgement.
- About two weeks: most complaints are resolved by then. If not, you get an update and an estimate of how long it will take.
- Five weeks: you receive another update or a final response.
- Eight weeks: if it is still not resolved, you can take it to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Financial Ombudsman Service

- Tesco Insurance is a member. The service is free and independent.
- You usually need to refer your complaint within six months of the final response.
- Phone 0800 023 4567, or +44 20 7964 0500 from outside the UK.
- Post: The Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, London, E14 9SR.